Sunday, May 28, 2017 Ascension of Our Lord
The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them. When they saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted. Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."
MT 28:16-20

Our Challenge

Dear friends,

With Jesus’ Ascension all visible contact with him came to an end. The apostles just have had a hard time understanding his departure. The apostles and others returned to Jerusalem and to some upper room where they devoted themselves to prayer.

In our second reading this weekend, Peter addressed Christians who were being persecuted and encouraged them to rejoice in the fact that they were sharing in Christ’s sufferings. Being reproached in the name of Christ is certainly nothing to be ashamed of. Such a one might even glorify God. Jesus has been speaking to his disciples and then turns to prayer. The prayer is heavily focused on the disciples because his time with them is running short. He clearly indicates that he is not praying for the world, but for his followers who will carry his work forward. Think how often we turn on and turn off lights. We take it for granted, but what would we do without light? Dylan Thomas warned us: “Do not go gentle into that good night; / Old age should burn and rave at close of day; / Rage, rage against the dying of the light.” And H. G. Wells wrote of one of his characters: “All the old stories of the lost valley and the Country of the Blind had come back to his mind, and through his thoughts ran an old proverb, as if it were a refrain - - In the Country of the Blind the One-Eyed Man is King.” Christ’s early followers, specifically his disciples, were chosen carefully. The “twelve” were made up of true individuals, from head-strong Simon Peter to the ultimate betrayer Judas, yet, for the most part, the disciples were committed to their Lord Jesus and to the will of God. No one knows how many people were helped and blessed by these followers of Jesus, both during the time of his ministry and after. But apparently they were great in number. As disciples, we must see other people with interest and seek to know their needs. Seeing pain and suffering, disappointment and loss, cruelty and hate, we must have open minds and an attitude of patience to keep us positive and save us from making judgments that only God can make. Aldous Huxley said, “It is only by taking the fact of eternity into account that we can deliver thought from its slavery to life. And it is only by deliberately paying our attention and our primary allegiance to eternity that we can prevent time from turning our lives into a pointless or diabolic foolery.”

Have a good week!
Love and prayers,
Father Randy

June 3 – 4, 2017

Dear friends,

The first Pentecost marked the birth of the Church: for the first time in their lives, the disciples were hearing the word of God in a way that struck straight home to their hearts and that they could understand. The power of the Spirit was such that it had given these simple disciples a message and an utterance that could reach every heart. In the passage this weekend from the first letter to the Christian Church in Corinth, Greece, the idea of Paul is to stress the essential unity of the Church. But unity does not mean uniformity. Therefore, within the Church there are differing gifts and differing functions, but every one of them is a gift of the same Spirit. And every one of them is designed for the glory of God. Jesus breathes the Holy Spirit on the disciples and gives them a commission to go forth and to remit the sins of the penitent. This is also the commission to the Church today. The world sees power as a way of gamesmanship and as a way of controlling others for its own advantage. The power that was apparent at Pentecost was a power which entered the world to level the playing field for all of humankind. Those who were to receive the Holy Spirit would become servants of others and not masters. There are times when we are the victims of people’s use of power over us. People believe that power can overcome all obstacles. This power over people and over things is one in which our culture believes. Jesus, on the other hand, shows us that true power rests with God alone and our human power is best served when helping others and doing God’s will.

Have a good week!
Love and prayers,
Father Randy

Reverend Eddie Martin Parochial Vicar at St. Aloysius Parish

As announced last weekend, Father Josh has received an assignment to his first pastorate at Holy Rosary Parish in St. Amant, Louisiana, effective Saturday, July 1, 2017. We share his joy and enthusiasm as he embarks on a new chapter of ministry as shepherd in our diocese, and are grateful for the many ways he and his ministry has touched our lives over the past two years! His farewell reception will be immediately after the 4:30 P.M. Mass on Saturday, June 24th!

Concurrent with that assignment, Father Eddie Martin has been assigned as Parochial Vicar at St. Aloysius, effective the same date.

Father Eddie was ordained to the priesthood on May 28, 2016. Eddie was married for 35 years to Jennie Nates, a most wonderful woman who lost her battle with cancer in April of 2013. He was ordained to the diaconate in 2010 and served at St. John the Evangelist Parish until entering seminary at Notre Dame Seminary in New Orleans. He has a degree in chemical engineering, served as the President of Louisiana Gifts and Gallery, Inc., for over thirty years and has been serving as the Parochial Vicar at St. Thomas More Parish in Baton Rouge for the past year. He is the father of three grown children who have blessed him with five grandchildren with a sixth on the way. A fourth child, Maggie, is already enjoying her heavenly reward alongside her mother. Fr. Eddie has also authored a book chronicling his wife, Jennie’s courage, faith and the love they shared during their life together as one in holy matrimony. The book, The Last Dance, is currently at the publisher and he hopes to have copies available within a few months.

St. Aloysius is delighted to welcome Father Eddie to our parish family! Fr. Eddie will be on hand after all Masses on the weekend of July 1 – 2 to greet parishioners, and especially at “coffee & donuts” in the Parish Hall after the 9 a.m. Mass on July 2.
St. Aloysius “Wholey Fit” Exercise Group

“Wholey Fit” at St. Aloysius is designed to burn fat and calories, to gain muscles and to tone the body. Participants agree it is better than walking and more fun, with patterns that are easy to grasp and not difficult to learn. Setting patterns to music helps keep a steady beat as low impact cardio steps bring your heart rate up. Increasing the heart rate helps endurance and assists in improving the quality of life. Twenty-five minutes of cardio are followed by twenty minutes of toning with hand weights and maintenance moves that promote muscle strength.

All ages are welcome, both men and women. The group meets year round, three times a week at 8:30 a.m. in the Parish Hall. Pay by the month cost is $25 and for those who cannot commit to three days per week, the cost is $2 per session. Please contact Donna Gerstner at 766-3591 or gerstner3691@gmail.com if interested. We look forward to welcoming new participants to this health enhancing and fun program. Come chassé with us, a French term meaning to step sideways.

Our instructor, Ms. Geoffroy, is certified through the Aerobics and Fitness Association of America.

Summer Music at St. Aloysius

During the summer months there will be two music groups that will sing for Sunday liturgy:

Summer Choir begins on Sunday, June 11 and continues each Sunday through Labor Day. Summer choir is open to all adult, youth, and children of the parish. It is an ideal way for a family to share in music ministry together. This choir is designed to allow individuals and families to try out singing in a church choir without having to commit to a mid-week rehearsal. Summer Choir is flexible. It is organized to accommodate the vacation and summer schedules of our parishioners. The choir will rehearse at 10:00 a.m. each Sunday in the Convent Choir Room. The Summer Choir will lead the music for the 11:00 a.m. mass. For more information about the Summer Choir, Ken Thevenet, kthevenet@staloysiusparish.com, 343-6657.

The 5:30 Music Ministry will also continue to provide music for the Sunday evening Mass during the summer months. This group is primarily made up of High School and College Age musicians. If you enjoy singing, please share your gifts with the 5:30 Music Ministry. Rehearsals take place before Mass at 4:30 p.m. in the Convent Choir Room. Contact Anna Hittle hittleanna@gmail.com or Ken Thevenet, 343-6657, for more information.
